Dear Mr. Walker,

I am responding to your memo dated April 18, 2001 regarding our 12 Day Pre-Primary Report (7/1/00-8/23/00).

In regard to the first item, the independent expenditures noted on Schedule E apply equally to all candidates listed on the addendum. You will note that there are seven candidates listed for whom the independent expenditures supported. There are three candidates for whom the independent expenditures opposed. Not all of the seven candidates that we supported had opponents but we did feature all seven candidates in our newsletter. Since this was done without their knowledge or the knowledge of their campaign, they qualify as independent expenditures and must be reported as such.

In regard to the second item, the Wisconsin Right to Life Political Action Committee (WRL/PAC) hired Life-Tel, Inc., a telemarketing firm that is a subsidiary of Wisconsin Right to Life to make fundraising calls. I inadvertently reported that we paid $25,351.25 to the Wisconsin Right to Life general fund. That was incorrect. I should have reported that $25,351.25 was paid to Life-Tel, Inc., who charges WRL/PAC a rate per call that is based on fair market value.

Thank you for pointing out that we provided an incorrect identification number.

Sincerely,

Richard Fox
